Dear Colleagues,

During the 14th EFLM Symposium for Balkan region we announced that Society of Medical Biochemists of Serbia as organizer of the Symposium for Balkan Region in previous 14 years intend to change the format of the Symposium to

BELGRADE SYMPOSIUM FOR BALKAN REGION
UNDER TITLE
Neighboring Countries: The Same Professional Aim

That will be organized next year under the title 15th Belgrade Symposium for Balkan Region (April 18 and 19, 2019, Belgrade, www.dmbj.org.rs).

It is very important that during Symposia we discuss about mutual topics important for each country from our Region as:

- Laboratory Medicine Planning and Organization
- Type of Medical Laboratory and Strategy
- Laboratory Medicine Management
- Leadership Skills
- Accreditation and Competences
- Environmental Health and Safety
- Laboratory Standards in Balkan Countries
- Experiences of Young Scientists
- Students Achievements
- Poster Presentation
- Workshop Discussion

Except the countries from Balkan Region we will invite the other countries from our neighborhood as Italy, Austria, Hungary, Cyprus and Israel.

The Scientific and Organizing Committee will be consisted of representatives from Serbia, and president and national representative each participating countries. We hope that our colleagues from Slovenia, Austria, Hungary, Cyprus and Israel will accept to be member of the Scientific and Organizing Committee of the 15th Belgrade Symposium and help to organize successful meeting next year. We invite our colleagues to send the title of his lecture or his colleagues until October 20th. In respect of this it is very important to get your opinions and suggestions about the topics of the first interest for all of us.

Aim of this Symposium is to exchange experiences between our countries and help our colleagues to improve daily laboratory practice in our countries.

Also, one of the Symposium aim is to connect young investigators from our Region as well as students from Medical and Clinical Biochemistry.

All information also you can find on web sites www.dmbj.org.rs and www.bclf.info

With kind regards,

In Belgrade, 15. September 2018
